

Guidelines for Writing a Character Sketch

- Choose a person you know well or a story character who interests you.
- Think of details about how the person looks.
- Think of details about what the person says and does.
- Think of words and phrases to describe your feelings about this person.
- Write an interesting introduction that tells whom you will write about. Sum up his or her most important traits.
- Organize details about the person into separate paragraphs.

Guidelines for Writing a Character Sketch

- Choose a person you know well or a story character who interests you.
- Think of details about how the person looks.
- Think of details about what the person says and does.
- Think of words and phrases to describe your feelings about this person.
- Write an interesting introduction that tells whom you will write about. Sum up his or her most important traits.
- Organize details about the person into separate paragraphs.