

An Answer to a Question

- Read the question carefully.
- Look for key words. They help you decide what information the question is asking for.
- Use key words from the question to begin your answer.
- Give facts and examples that provide the information asked for.

1. How does the adinkra cloth from Ghana “talk”?

---

---

---

2. Why do adinkra cloths come in different colors?
Explain.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

An Answer to a Question

- Read the question carefully.
- Look for key words. They help you decide what information the question is asking for.
- Use key words from the question to begin your answer.
- Give facts and examples that provide the information asked for.

1. How does the adinkra cloth from Ghana “talk”?

The adinkra cloth from Ghana “talks” through its colors and symbols, which have special meanings.

2. Why do adinkra cloths come in different colors? Explain.

Adinkra cloths come in different colors to express different feelings. You choose a color to match your feelings. A white adinkra cloth means you are joyful. A green cloth means you’ve changed or grown. A blue cloth says you are in love. A red cloth tells the world that you are sad.