

Guidelines for Writing an Answer to a Question

- Read the question completely and carefully.
- Find key words in the question that help you decide what the question is asking.
- Repeat the key words in your answer. You can rewrite the question as a statement to help focus your answer.
- Make sure you answer the question completely.
- Include facts and examples to support your answer.

Guidelines for Writing an Answer to a Question

- Read the question completely and carefully.
- Find key words in the question that help you decide what the question is asking.
- Repeat the key words in your answer. You can rewrite the question as a statement to help focus your answer.
- Make sure you answer the question completely.
- Include facts and examples to support your answer.