

Description Rubric

4 The beginning clearly tells what the description is about.

I describe things in an order that makes sense.

I use sensory words to bring the description to life.

I used complete sentences

I used descriptive language and details.

There are few or no mistakes.

3 My description could be more clear.

I could order the details in a better way.

I could add more sensory details to bring the description to life.

I need to fix some sentences that are not complete.

There are some mistakes.

2 I forgot to tell what I was describing.

The details are in an order that doesn't make sense.

I haven't used words to help the reader picture what I am describing.

There are many errors.

1 My description is confusing to the reader.

I did not use many details.

There are so many mistakes that it is hard to understand.

