

Singular Possessive Nouns

This is the book of Tim.

This is Tim's book.

The feathers of the bird were red.

The bird's feathers were red.

Is that the hat of your mother?

Is that your mother's hat?

1. That is my dog's bone.
2. Where is Jimmy's coat?
3. The bird's nest is made of sticks and straw.
4. The campfire's heat warmed our toes.
5. My family's friend will visit us.
6. Do you have the baby's bottle?
7. The barn's roof is made of tin.
8. Each child's name is on the board.

Singular Possessive Nouns

This is the book of Tim.

This is Tim's book.

The feathers of the bird were red.

The bird's feathers were red.

Is that the hat of your mother?

Is that your mother's hat?

1. That is my dog's bone.
2. Where is Jimmy's coat?
3. The bird's nest is made of sticks and straw.
4. The campfire's heat warmed our toes.
5. My family's friend will visit us.
6. Do you have the baby's bottle?
7. The barn's roof is made of tin.
8. Each child's name is on the board.