

Guidelines for Writing a Poem

- List topics to write about. Circle the one you like best.
- Think of what you want to say about your topic. Write your ideas.
- Think about how you will write your poem. Remember that each line of your poem can be a sentence or a part of a sentence.
- Decide whether or not your poem will rhyme. If so, make a list of rhyming words you might use.
- Write your first line. Try repeating the same rhythm or pattern of beats in other lines.

Guidelines for Writing a Poem

- List topics to write about. Circle the one you like best.
- Think of what you want to say about your topic. Write your ideas.
- Think about how you will write your poem. Remember that each line of your poem can be a sentence or a part of a sentence.
- Decide whether or not your poem will rhyme. If so, make a list of rhyming words you might use.
- Write your first line. Try repeating the same rhythm or pattern of beats in other lines.