

Daily Language Practice

Correct two sentences each day.

1. looking for underwater treasure is not dul?

2. a feu shipwrecks have never been found.

3. One ship hit an iceberg and the crew could not pompe out the water.

4. The band played a famous toon as the ship was sinking

5. Some people were put into lifeboats but the trooth is that many were left behind.

6. A Sailor had dun his duty when he helped mrs. becker into a lifeboat with her two children

7. on the night the boat sank, a cold wind bleu.

8. Is it treu that twelve hundred people were lost at sea.

9. The ship was do in New York but it never arrived?

10. There was a huge hole in the ship and the motor shutt down?

Daily Language Practice

Correct two sentences each day.

1. looking for underwater treasure is not dul?

Looking for underwater treasure is not dull.

2. a feu shipwrecks have never been found.

A few shipwrecks have never been found.

3. One ship hit an iceberg and the crew could not pompe out the water.

One ship hit an iceberg, and the crew could not pump out the water.

4. The band played a famous toon as the ship was sinking

The band played a famous tune as the ship was sinking.

5. Some people were put into lifeboats but the trooth is that many were left behind.

Some people were put into lifeboats, but the truth is that many were left behind.

6. A Sailor had dun his duty when he helped mrs. becker into a lifeboat with her two children

A sailor had done his duty when he helped Mrs. Becker into a lifeboat with her two children.

7. on the night the boat sank, a cold wind bleu.

On the night the boat sank, a cold wind blew.

8. Is it treu that twelve hundred people were lost at sea.

Is it true that twelve hundred people were lost at sea?

9. The ship was do in New York but it never arrived?

The ship was due in New York, but it never arrived.

10. There was a huge hole in the ship and the motor shutt down?

There was a huge hole in the ship, and the motor shut down.