

Event Map

Pages 160–161

At midnight, the family was headed by car _____
_____

Pages 162–165

The boys carried water to the field, and when they got hot, they _____
_____

Pages 166–167

First the library lady took Tomás to a drinking fountain. Then she _____
_____

Pages 168–170

All summer, whenever he could, Tomás _____
_____

Pages 171–174

In the evenings, Tomás _____
_____

Event Map

Pages 160–161

At midnight, the family was headed by car _____
toward Iowa to work on a farm picking corn.

Pages 162–165

The boys carried water to the field, and when they got hot, they _____ sat under a tree with Papá Grande.

Pages 166–167

First the library lady took Tomás to a drinking fountain.
Then she _____ brought books to his table.

Pages 168–170

All summer, whenever he could, Tomás _____
went to the library.

Pages 171–174

In the evenings, Tomás _____
read stories to Mamá, Papá, Papá Grande, and Enrique.