

Guidelines for Writing a Descriptive Poem

Follow these guidelines when you write a descriptive poem.

- Stay focused on the topic you have chosen.
- Play with sounds. You might use a bouncy rhythm, rhyme, or a silly sense of humor.
- Play with lines. You might use four-line stanzas, mix long and short lines, or use the lines to make a shape.
- Choose words carefully. Include words that appeal to the senses.
- Make interesting comparisons. Try personification. Consider using metaphors and similes.
- Let your voice and imagination fly!

Guidelines for Writing a Descriptive Poem

Follow these guidelines when you write a descriptive poem.

- Stay focused on the topic you have chosen.
- Play with sounds. You might use a bouncy rhythm, rhyme, or a silly sense of humor.
- Play with lines. You might use four-line stanzas, mix long and short lines, or use the lines to make a shape.
- Choose words carefully. Include words that appeal to the senses.
- Make interesting comparisons. Try personification. Consider using metaphors and similes.
- Let your voice and imagination fly!