

Guidelines for Writing an Essay

- Write an interesting beginning that states the main idea.
- Explain why you think or feel the way you do. Write details (reasons, facts, and examples) that tell more about your main idea.
- Group your details into paragraphs. Write a topic sentence for each paragraph.
- Leave out any details that don't tell more about the main idea.
- Sum up the main idea of the essay in the final paragraph.

Guidelines for Writing an Essay

- Write an interesting beginning that states the main idea.
- Explain why you think or feel the way you do. Write details (reasons, facts, and examples) that tell more about your main idea.
- Group your details into paragraphs. Write a topic sentence for each paragraph.
- Leave out any details that don't tell more about the main idea.
- Sum up the main idea of the essay in the final paragraph.