

Main Ideas and Details in an Essay

I Love Saturday at the Lake by Tom Carlyle

When school is out and my parents are off from work, my whole family loves to spend a day at the lake. It's only a half an hour car trip away from where we live. We all sing songs and tell jokes on the way there.

For me, the best part is the water itself.

Add two or three sentences that give details about this statement.

I also love playing in the warm sun with the other kids who are there.

Add two or three sentences that give details about the games played at the lake.

Everyone in my family enjoys all the great-tasting food we bring for our picnic at the lake.

Add two or three sentences about eating a picnic lunch at the lake.

After a hard week at school or work, the lake is our family's favorite place to relax and have fun. So, whenever we can, we pack up the beach ball, the large umbrella, the sunscreen, and the towels. The water is always there, waiting just for us!

Main Ideas and Details in an Essay

I Love Saturday at the Lake by Tom Carlyle

When school is out and my parents are off from work, my whole family loves to spend a day at the lake. It's only a half an hour car trip away from where we live. We all sing songs and tell jokes on the way there.

For me, the best part is the water itself.

Add two or three sentences that give details about this statement.

I also love playing in the warm sun with the other kids who are there.

Add two or three sentences that give details about the games played at the lake.

Everyone in my family enjoys all the great-tasting food we bring for our picnic at the lake.

Add two or three sentences about eating a picnic lunch at the lake.

After a hard week at school or work, the lake is our family's favorite place to relax and have fun. So, whenever we can, we pack up the beach ball, the large umbrella, the sunscreen, and the towels. The water is always there, waiting just for us!