Discuss the four Geography Investigation questions below.

1. What state is in the upper left corner of this picture?

2. What is the white, swirling mass to the right?

3. What do you think people on the ground might have been doing at the time this photograph was taken?

4. Describe one way you think the type of weather event shown in this picture affects life in the Southeast.