

Sentence Combining

Combine each pair of sentences to avoid repetition.

1. The cat pawed at the toy.
 2. The dog pawed at the toy.
-

3. Marcy petted the dog.
 4. Lou petted the dog.
-

5. The puppy ate its food.
 6. The puppy lapped up its water.
-

7. The kitten hopped up on the pillow.
 8. The kitten fell fast asleep.
-

9. The puppy barked at me.
 10. The kitten rubbed against my leg.
-

11. The puppy is two months old.
 12. The kitten is eight weeks old.
-

Sentence Combining

Combine each pair of sentences to avoid repetition.

1. The cat pawed at the toy.
 2. The dog pawed at the toy.
- The cat and dog pawed at the toy.
-

3. Marcy petted the dog.
 4. Lou petted the dog.
- Marcy and Lou petted the dog.
-

5. The puppy ate its food.
 6. The puppy lapped up its water.
- The puppy ate its food and lapped up its water.
-

7. The kitten hopped up on the pillow.
 8. The kitten fell fast asleep.
- The kitten hopped up on the pillow and fell fast asleep.
-

9. The puppy barked at me.
 10. The kitten rubbed against my leg.
- The puppy barked at me, and the kitten rubbed against my leg.
-

11. The puppy is two months old.
 12. The kitten is eight weeks old.
- The puppy is two months old, and the kitten is eight weeks old.
-