

Guidelines for Writing a Clarification Composition

- Include the quotation you will be clarifying in the first paragraph. Tell who said or wrote the quotation.
- Write your interpretation of the quotation: restate the quotation in your own words, telling what you think it means.
- In the paragraph or paragraphs that follow, write examples and details that support your interpretation of the quotation.
- In the final paragraph, write a concluding statement that summarizes your interpretation.
- Write three to five paragraphs in all.

Guidelines for Writing a Clarification Composition

- Include the quotation you will be clarifying in the first paragraph. Tell who said or wrote the quotation.
- Write your interpretation of the quotation: restate the quotation in your own words, telling what you think it means.
- In the paragraph or paragraphs that follow, write examples and details that support your interpretation of the quotation.
- In the final paragraph, write a concluding statement that summarizes your interpretation.
- Write three to five paragraphs in all.