

Running Wild and Free

Horses running wild and free,
Their hoof beats sound across the plains.

They pause at the river or under a tree
With swishing tails and flowing manes.
Then back again to run some more,
To test each other in races,

From riverbank or forest floor,
Across wide open spaces.

Grade 5 Theme 5-7
One Land, Many Trails
Black Cowboy, Wild Horses