

Generalizations Chart

Generalization

A new baby _____ life for everyone in the family.

Supporting Examples

Page 128: _____

Page 129: _____

_____

Page 130: _____

Generalization

Older children _____ younger brothers and sisters.

Supporting Examples

Page 130: _____

Page 131: _____

Page 133: _____

Generalizations Chart

Wording of answers may vary.

Generalization

A new baby changes _____ life for everyone in the family.

Supporting Examples

Page 128: Dorrie spends a lot of time holding the baby.

Page 129: Ben has to play by himself while his mother cares for the baby.

Page 130: Valerie gets tired of people talking about the baby.

Generalization

Older children help _____ younger brothers and sisters.

Supporting Examples

Page 130: Michael and Leo hold their baby sisters.

Page 131: Juanita helps by keeping the baby out of trouble.

Page 133: Rena helps her sister get ready for school.