Guidelines for Writing a Poem

1. What you will describe? This is your topic.
2. Write down exact words to tell how your topic looks, feels, sounds, tastes, or smells.
3. Decide how you will write the poem.
   • Will there be rhyming words?
   • Will your poem be in a shape?
   • How will you group the lines?
   • Will your poem be happy, sad, or funny?
   • Will your poem have a repeated rhythm?
     Each word or syllable can be one beat.
5. Read your poem aloud to hear how it sounds. Make any changes that will make your poem read more smoothly.
Guidelines for Writing a Poem

1. What you will describe? This is your topic.
2. Write down exact words to tell how your topic looks, feels, sounds, tastes, or smells.
3. Decide how you will write the poem.
   - Will there be rhyming words?
   - Will your poem be in a shape?
   - How will you group the lines?
   - Will your poem be happy, sad, or funny?
   - Will your poem have a repeated rhythm?
     Each word or syllable can be one beat.
5. Read your poem aloud to hear how it sounds. Make any changes that will make your poem read more smoothly.