

Noting Details Chart

Details Chart

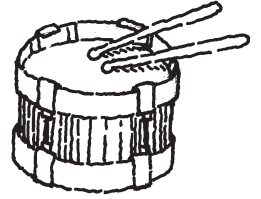

Moses can't hear the sounds he makes on the drum. (page 333)

Mr. Samuels's friend is a percussionist. (pages 342 and 344)

The percussionist and children feel the music at the concert. (pages 344-345)

The children meet the percussionist. (pages 352-355)

Noting Details Chart

Details Chart

Moses can't hear the sounds he makes on the drum. (page 333)

He feels the vibration through his hands.

He takes off his shoes to feel the vibration through his feet.

Mr. Samuels's friend is a percussionist.
(pages 342 and 344)

She plays the drums, cymbals, and other instruments.

She is deaf.

The percussionist and children feel the music at the concert. (pages 344-345)

The percussionist feels the vibrations through her stocking feet.

The children use balloons to feel the music.

The children meet the percussionist.
(pages 352-355)

She tells them how she became a percussionist.

She lets them play the instruments.