

UNIT 29 HOMEWORK 1

A Brother?

When my dad said, "You are going to get a brother," I was cool, but I said, "Well, that wasn't in my plans."

Mom said, "We will get Tucker soon."

"Tucker," I said. "Who's Tucker?"

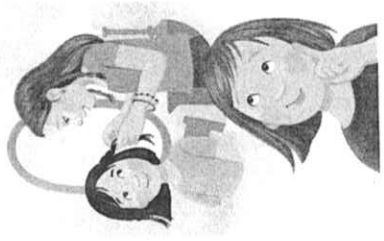

Dad said, "Tucker is your little brother. We will get him soon."

I got that sinking feeling back. Peg had said, "This is your day. You will get your wish," but this didn't seem to be going so well. A brother wasn't my wish at all.

I said, "Didn't you hear? I said, 'I wish I had a sister,' not a brother."

Mom said, "A brother will be great fun."

I said, "I do not want a brother."

UNIT 29 HOMEWORK 2

My Little Brother

Peg and her sister wanted to meet Little Tuck. So did her mom and dad. So, we took them into Little Tuck's room, but all he did was sleep.

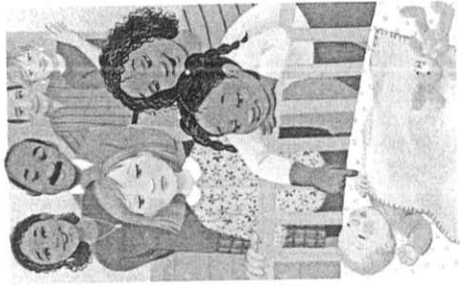

Peg said, "He is so cool."

I said, "What? He is all pink. He sleeps all day. What's so cool about that?"

Then, as if by plan, Little Tuck began to cry. So, Mom picked him up. Tuck said, "Goo goo."

Peg's mom said, "Listen to that. Isn't he smart?"

It was then that I began to think I was stuck with brother Tuck.

Did I Say That?

I remember. One day, my mom said, 7
 "This is your brother. This is Little Tuck." 15
 I remember thinking I wasn't too glad 22 about that. In fact, I was upset. I had 31
 wanted a sister. 34
 But then, Little Tuck grinned at me. 41
 I said, "Yuck, yuck, yuck," but Tucker 48
 didn't blink. 50
 He is still that way. He is bigger, but 59
 he still grins at me when I'm mad. I get 69
 madder when Tuck grins, but I can't stay 77
 mad. 78
 When people aren't looking, I play 84 with Tuck. I tickle his feet, and I tell him 94 about the pig that went to the market. We 103 play peek-a-boo. I'm glad we got Tuck. 110
 If he was not my brother, I would miss him. 120
