

Using Forms of the Verb be

1. María Isabel be a new student at her school.

2. The Winter Pageant are a major event there.

3. The winter holidays is special for many people.

4. María Isabel's parents was proud of her musical ability.

5. Her secret desire were to become a famous singer.

6. That large object are a piñata.

Using Forms of the Verb be

1. María Isabel be a new student at her school.

María Isabel is a new student at her school.

2. The Winter Pageant are a major event there.

The Winter Pageant is a major event there.

3. The winter holidays is special for many people.

The winter holidays are special for many people.

4. María Isabel's parents was proud of her musical ability.

María Isabel's parents were proud of her musical ability.

5. Her secret desire were to become a famous singer.

Her secret desire was to become a famous singer.

6. That large object are a piñata.

That large object is a piñata.