SKILLS
- Determine word/phrase meaning, including figurative language, connotative language/meaning, and technical meaning
- Analyze the meaning and tone of the entire text
- Determine and explain how the formal/informal tone impacts the setting
- Determine and explain the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone
- Examine and analyze artistry of language

STANDARDS (READING INFORMATIONAL TEXT)

RI.11-12.1 Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.

SKILLS
- Recognize the text’s explicit message
- Thoroughly cite textual evidence that most strongly supports the text’s explicit message
- Draw logical inferences from the text
- Determine where text leaves matters uncertain and more information is required

RI.11-12.2 Determine two or more central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to provide a complex analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.

SKILLS
- Identify 2+ central ideas
- Examine the central ideas’ development and how they interact
- Summarize text without including personal opinions

RI.11-12.3 Analyze a complex set of ideas or sequence of events and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop over the course of the text.

SKILLS
- Examine how an author develops a text including:
  - Order of complex ideas or sequence of events
  - Introduction and development of complex ideas or events
  - Relationship between complex ideas or events

RI.11-12.4 Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term or terms over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10).
SKILLS
- Determine word/phrase meaning INCLUDING:
  - Figurative, connotative and technical language/meaning
  - Analyze how an author uses and clarifies the meaning of key terms throughout a text.

STANDARDS (WRITING)

Narrative Writing

W.11-12.3 Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences.

SKILLS
- Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation and its significance, establishing one or multiple point(s) of view, and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events.
- Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.
- Use a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome (e.g., a sense of mystery, suspense, growth, or resolution).
- Use precise words and phrases, telling details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences, events, setting, and/or characters.
- Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on what is experienced, observed, or resolved over the course of the narrative

Review of Writing Process

W.11-12.4 Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

W.11-12.5 Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience. (Editing for conventions should demonstrate command of Language standards 1–3)

SKILLS
- Use the writing process to improve writing skills.
- Edit and revise writing to appeal to a specific audience
- Edit and revise writing to fulfill an explicit purpose
- Proofread and edit grammatical and syntactical errors.
STANDARDS (SPEAKING/LISTENING)

SL.11-12.1 Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussion (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grades 11-12 topics, texts, and issues building on other’s ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.

SKILLS
Prepare in advance for discussions:
- Read/research materials for discussion
- Identify evidence in materials
- Generate questions about topic, text or issues
- Set expectations as a group for goals and deadlines
- Set expectations for group decision making procedures
- Understand individual role for discussion

During discussion:
- Works with peers to promote civil, Democratic discussion
- Refer to evidence on topic, text, or issue
- Build on the comments and questions of other group members, resolving contradictions when possible
- Pose questions probing reasoning and evidence
- Respond to probing questions with evidence
- Clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions
- Promote the hearing of divergent and creative perspectives
- Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives
- Use evidence to stimulate exchange of ideas

During and/or After discussion:
- Synthesize multiple perspectives on the topic, text, or issue through reflection and paraphrasing
- Determine what additional information or research is required

SL.11-12.3 Evaluate a speaker’s point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, assessing the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used.

STANDARDS (LANGUAGE)

L.11-12.1 Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

SKILLS
- Apply the understanding that usage is a matter of convention, can change over time, and is sometimes contested.
- Resolve issues of complex or contested usage, consulting references (e.g., Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of English Usage, Garner’s Modern American Usage) as needed.

</table>
Overarching Essential Question(s):

- How can I effectively present my unique ideas and address other viewpoints in sophisticated language and style?
- How does one develop a sense of personal voice?
- How is human experience and behavior similar, regardless of place or time?

Suggested Time Frame: Quarter Two

STANDARDS (READING INFORMATIONAL TEXT)

RI.11-12.5 Analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in his or her exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, convincing, and engaging.

SKILLS
- Determine/explain in detail how an author’s ideas are clarified through the author’s choice of text structure
- Evaluate the effectiveness of the author’s choice of text structure

RI.11-12.6 Determine an author’s point of view or purpose in a text in which the rhetoric is particularly effective, analyzing how style and content contribute to the power, persuasiveness, or beauty of the text.

SKILLS
- Identify author’s point of view or purpose in a text with effective rhetoric
- Examine how the author’s style and content enhance the text’s:
  - Power
  - Persuasiveness
  - Beauty

RI.11-12.7 Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in different media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively), as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem.

SKILLS
- Evaluate the information presented in various media (visual, quantitative, spoken, and written, etc.)
- Synthesize multiple sources (in various formats) to address a question or solve a problem (a prompt)

STANDARDS (WRITING)

Argument Writing

W.11-12.1 Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.

SKILLS
- Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.
- Develop claim(s) and counterclaims fairly and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both in a manner that anticipates the audience’s knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases.
• Use words, phrases, and clauses as well as varied syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims.
• Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.
• Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the argument presented.

W.11-12.7 Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.

SKILLS
• Use the research process to answer a specific question or solve a problem
• Generate, narrow, broaden, and revise the research questions when necessary
• Synthesize multiple sources to answer the research question
• Demonstrate understanding of the subject

W.11-12.8 Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and overreliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation.

SKILLS
• Gather multiple and credible print and digital sources.
• Use advanced research methods and searches proficiently.
• Assess the credibility and usefulness of sources in responding to a specific inquiry task, purpose, and audience.
• Integrate paraphrased information seamlessly
• Embed quotations to maintain flow of syntax and ideas.
• Avoid plagiarism and follow MLA format for citations.
• Avoid overreliance on any one source

W.11-12.9 Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.

SKILLS
• Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literature (e.g., “Demonstrate knowledge of eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics”).
• Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literary nonfiction (e.g., “Delineate and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. texts, including the application of constitutional principles and use of legal reasoning [e.g., in U.S. Supreme Court Case majority opinions and dissents] and the premises, purposes, and arguments in works of public advocacy [e.g., The Federalist, presidential addresses]”).
STANDARDS (SPEAKING/LISTENING)

SL.11-12.2 Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) in order to make informed decisions and solve problems, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and noting any discrepancies among the data.

SKILLS
- Integrate information from multiple sources of information in diverse media or formats to:
  - Make informed decisions
  - Solve problems
  - Evaluate the credibility and accuracy of each source and note data discrepancies

SL.11-12.4 Present information, findings, and supporting evidence conveying a clear and distinct perspective, such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning, alternate or opposing perspectives are addressed and the organization, development, substance and style are appropriate to purpose, audience and a range of formal and informal tasks.

SKILLS
- Present information, findings, and supporting evidence conveying a clear, distinct perspective and line of reasoning to the audience.
- Address alternate or opposing viewpoints.
- Select organization, development, substance, and styles appropriate to purpose, audience, and both formal and informal tasks.

STANDARDS (LANGUAGE)

L.11-12.5 Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.

SKILLS
- Interpret figures of speech (e.g., hyperbole, paradox) in context and analyze their role in the text.
- Analyze nuances in the meaning of words with similar denotations.

L.11-12.6 Acquire and use accurately general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.
UNIT 3: MATTERS OF JUDGMENT

Unit Overview: Students will analyze the impact of personal responsibility on the individual and society as a whole.

Overarching Essential Question(s):
How can examining complex issues from different perspectives develop valuable life and professional skills?

What impact does personal responsibility have not only on the individual, but also the world as a whole?

Suggested Time Frame: Quarter Three
