BLUE VALLEY SCHOOLS

Education Beyond Expectations

April 8, 2019

Board honors Wolf Springs Elementary

The Board honored Wolf Springs Elementary for being named as a P21 Exemplar School by the P21 Partnership for 21st Century Learning. Currently, there are over 30 elementary schools identified as exemplar schools and Wolf Springs has joined this selective group. The state of Kansas has one other exemplar, Blue Valley CAPS, which was identified in 2016.

Board honors Haight, Kempker, Hoover and Thomas

Laura Haight, job coach for the 18-21 Program, and Sarah Kempker, registered behavior technician at Hilltop Learning Center, were honored with the Distinguished Service Award. Brogan Hoover, school psychologist at Lakewood Elementary, and Denise Thomas, library media specialist at Wolf Springs Elementary, were honored with the Excellence in Education Award.

Board approves proclamation declaring April BVEF Month

The Board approved a proclamation declaring April as Blue Valley Educational Foundation (BVEF) Month. BVEF empowers teachers to go beyond traditional classroom limits to enable students to innovate, lead and learn for their futures through community support and grants.
